Bio:

Listen to LoveJoys, the sophomore release from Seattle, WA's Pickwick, and you'll hear a band that has pushed aside external pressures and expectations, overcome internal demons, and plugged directly into their own creative center. Slinky, sinewy, and articulate, the record pulses with a palpable confidence. Hypnotically intricate, just-right sonic ornamentation shimmers around a thick, undulating bed of propulsive rhythm. Submit willfully, give yourself over to Pickwick's practiced ministrations, and you'll find yourself exhausted and deeply satisfied, slick with a sheen of glitter and sweat.

Welcome!! Welcome!!

Hot town, summer in the city; back of my neck getting dirty and gritty...Whew!! IT DONE GOT HOT and we are in Portland NOT Phoenix... Summertime and the livin' is easy...this is the music business where we simply tell you what we have and the orders start rolling in....so the livin' is indeed easy. Stop The Wedding!! Hold Your Horses! Wait A Minute Mr. Postman! It ain't necessarily so. If only it was that easy...BUT, we do indeed have some new and compelling selections to offer which ideally will help to fill your coffers.

What's it all about, Alfie? It's all about the kids---we keep telling you that. This month we have a new one from Emmy and Latin Grammy winners Lucky Diaz and the Family Jam Band...and we expect to have details on their catalogue in the next guide. And then there is Jazzy Ash, an LA based artist who slings a mean ukulele and mandated that her newest, Swing Set, would feature songs for children that were at least 100 years old. It's all about the KIDS!

It is tough to live up to a compliment some times. In 2011, at the peak of Bon Iver's popularity, founder Justin Vernon said (the then unknown) Poliça was "...the best band I've ever heard." But live up to it, they've done. Three albums worth. And now we have a single; but not just any single---this one is a 20 minute collaboration with Berliner's s-t-a-r-g-a-z-e covering Steve Reich's "Music For Pieces of Wood". It is extraordinary! And keep your eyeballs peeled for a new full length in September.

Vinyl---as Murray the K used to say, "It's what's happening, Baby!!" We start with a brand new double LP from Paradise that hearkens to 70's Prog Rock Operas produced by the legendary Ron Nevison (think Zeppelin, Stones, Who---you get the picture). We also have the LP component of the recent Lo-fi dreams by Jeffrey Halford, an older one from the Foghorn Stringband, the current Ten Foot Pole and the (third time's a charm) much delayed Crushed Out.

We introduced some 50 titles from the Projekt label a few months back. This month we have another 30 catalogue titles with over half by Electronic wizard Steve Roach but others by Forrest Fang, Robert Fripp, Black Tape For A Blue Girl, Mortiiis and more.

And let us not forget a new one whose name you can not pronounce by Scotland's legendary Christine Primrose. Go ahead, let me hear you say 'Gràdh is Gonadh - Guth ag aithris'. It matters not---the disc is wondrous!

STOP---Wait A Minute!! Also want to let you know we have received more stock of the Q Lazzarus--Goodbye Horses Vinyl item that was riding high in April (when we added it) and shot down in May (when we ran out and deleted)---it is now reactivated and available at this very moment!

Your friends at bdc...

AMERICANA

Ocean, Elijah, Elijah Ocean

It's twenty-seventeen in the southwestern corner of America. There's snow in the distant mountains and the slow desert sunset creeps through the windshield of the Mercury on 40 West. The young man is driving home, wherever that is. Every year Elijah Ocean crisscrosses the country singing his songs and making memories. With three full-length LPs under his belt and a fourth in the chamber, Ocean is just hitting his stride. Following 2014's folksy Bring It All In and a cross-country move to Los Angeles, the singer-songwriter is set to release a self-titled full-length country-rock LP.

NOTE: This album will be released on August 4th.

BLUEGRASS

Foghorn Stringband, The, Devil in the Seat

The Foghorn Stringband is the present day shining gold standard for American string band music, with eight albums, thousands of shows world-wide, over a decade of touring under their belts, and an entirely new generation of old-time musicians following their lead. Through all this, they've never let the music grow cold; instead they've been steadily proving that American roots music is a never-ending well of inspiration. To Foghorn, this music is as relevant today as it was a century ago. They see themselves not as revivalists, but as curators and ardent fans, and their music is a celebration of these roots. They've brought in influences and inspirations from their many travels and late-night jam sessions. Old-time square dance tunes now rub shoulders with Cajun waltzes, vintage honky-tonk songs, and pre-bluegrass picking. This is the kind of bubbling musical brew which first intoxicated the American mainstream in the days when "country music" was just being invented.

CHILDRENS

Diaz, Lucky and the Family Jam Band, Made in LA

Lucky Diaz and the Family Jam Band were crowned the very first U.S. based artists to win a Latin GRAMMY in the Children's Album category. Incubated in the dreamy sunscape of Southern California, Made in LA, the band's most energetic and eclectic album yet, features the who's who of the family music scene in Los Angeles, including Genevieve Goings (Disney Jr), Mike Phirman (SiriusXM), Todd McHatton, Andrew & Polly and Mista Cookie Jar, as well as Grammy nominee Frances England. The sights, sounds and tastes of the city run throughout these 12 original songs, from "Silver Lake Stairs" to "Echo Park" and "Fiesta de la Brea." The dreamy optimism of "Magic Believers" gives way to the humorous reality of rush-hour themed "Traffic," and "When It Rained" will resonate with any listener who's experienced the recent torrential weather in So Cal. Must have for all dreamers and doers. Watch for catalogue titles next month.

Jazzy Ash, Swing Set

Jazzy Ash and the Leaping Lizards are releasing their fourth studio album, Swing Set, this summer! They've chosen 14 songs to represent and celebrate music created by African-American children, adults, and musicians from the mid-1800s to the early jazz era. You'll hear a fresh take on sassy playground clapping songs, soulful lullabies and classic New Orleans melodies, all presented in style by Jazzy Ash and her band. Every song on this record is over 90 years old. Although many of the songs are familiar, most of the songs' authors are anonymous. But through the melodies and the lyrics, we discover their stories. These songwriters were musicians, or children at play. They were family members; mothers and fathers. They were hard-working and passionate. They danced! They had fun! Now, we have the privilege of gathering these tunes, polishing them up, and presenting them to new audience. It's a swingin' good time!

PUNK

Ten Foot Pole, Setlist

Ten Foot Pole, one of the more traveled “underground” California melodic punk bands from the 90’s Epitaph era (The Offspring, Pennywise, Lagwagon, NOFX, Rancid), is back on the scene with an album titled Setlist, which includes new recordings of eleven of their old songs, plus two new songs. Known for heartfelt lyrics, often stories, put to aggressive guitar riffs and fast drums, TFP was a favorite in the soundtrack for the 1990’s skate and surf scenes. They have released six albums combined for worldwide sales of over three hundred thousand units. Ten Foot Pole took a break from 2006 to 2013, as Dennis, the lead vocalist, rhythm guitarist, and principal songwriter, focused on his audio career, mixing live sound for artists including Prince, Jimmy Eat World, Beck, AFI and Weird Al Yankovic.

ROCK/POP

Crushed Out, Alien Ocean

Alien Ocean is Crushed Out’s most definitive, cohesive, fleshed out album to date. Frankie dubs drunken lap steel, bassy analog synths, electric piano and Hammond organ, while Moselle brings her most inventive and passionate performances. Frankie’s signature shimmering clean to ripping fuzz guitar tone dances from 60’s surf to roaring cave creature. Alien Ocean tackles themes of order & chaos, communication breakdown, alienation, love, personal freedom, human contradiction & consciousness while keeping it heavy, fun and wet. Look out for their live show featuring an immersive stage world complete with electric palm trees, black flamingos and much that you’d expect to find at the shores of an Alien Ocean. This green vinyl limited edition LP contains both a download card and a lyric sheet.

NOTE: This album was originally listed in our November 18, 2016 New Release Guide and again in March of 2017 but manufacturing issues significantly delayed its' availability.

Paradise, Dawn of Paradise

The Chicago-to-Portland husband/wife team of Paradise’s Steven Denekas and Tamar Berk have crafted a loving homage to the classic rock opera in Dawn of Paradise, a double-vinyl LP which recalls the heyday of The Who’s “Tommy,” Pink Floyd’s “The Wall” and Yes’ “Tales of Topographic Oceans,” produced and engineered by the legendary Ron Nevison, who manned the boards on both “Quadrophenia” and “Physical Graffiti.” A sprawling epic described as “the journey of a child to God,” that encompasses both religion and politics, family and work, mortality and transcendence, it is an unabashed attempt to bring this classic-rock genre into 2017. Denekas and Berk have been working their way through the history of rock on their previous two Paradise albums, as they start from the British Invasion’s mid-60s garage-rock roots, graduate to psychedelia and then fully immersing themselves in the ‘70s conceptual, progressive rock era. Along with drummer Thom Sullivan and bassist Allen Hunter, the pair bring both craft and passion, updating the form with instrumental prowess and a larger-than-life vision.

POLICA, Bruise Blood: Reimagining Steve Reich’s Music for Pieces of Wood

Blazing a trail across the modern musical landscape with three albums of dark, personally political pop, Polica has distorted the conventions of production and form to create deeply affecting songs that claw into your consciousness. This fourth release, a collaboration with Berlin-based neoclassical powerhouse s-t-a-r-g-a-z-e, dives further into the creative form that Polica has developed since its inception. Taking minimalist pioneer Steve Reich’s “Music For Pieces of Wood” as a basis and corrupting its polyrhythms across a continuous twenty minutes, the recording pushes the boundaries of both artists in a truly engrossing and transportive collaboration. Pressed on 12” etched vinyl.

Lazzarus, Q, Goodbye Horses

This is a repressing of the classic early 80s single, Goodbye Horses from Q Lazzarus, perhaps best known for its inclusion in the Silence of the Lambs and Married to the Mob soundtracks. The much sought after track is hard to find on vinyl, and the original pressing on Mon Amie (1500 copies) sold out very quickly. This pressing includes the original single edit as well as never-before-heard original demos from a time when Q Lazzarus was still a cab driver in NYC. Q's whereabouts are currently unknown, but her beguiling legacy remains of great interest, especially to synth pop fans the world over. The artwork features stills from her long lost original music video for Goodbye Horses which will be soon be re-released.

Swedish Finnish, Swedish Finnish

Swedish Finnish = 100% all pop-music catchy as hell. The Swedish Finnish Seattle magic hooks earworm their way into your brain, you cannot forget them! Not allowed. The glorious three-part harmonies soar through songs, guitars intertwine and the beat is steady. Delicious slices of sonic heaven. Swedish Finnish proudly shouts their influences on their sleeves loud and clear - the chunky "Mine Is Better" channels T. Rex; "Don't Do Anything (I Wouldn't Do)" is probably a long-lost Ronettes song (with the boys doing the singing). "Hungover" and "Marla's House" recall their biggest heroes, The Beatles, while "I'm Leaving" takes the classic chord progression of Them's "Gloria," and pounds it into a brand new context. Their first eleven bites of pop confection have now been perfected for your delighted consumption. Let's Go Rock!

WORLD

Neto, Jovino Santos and André Mehmar, Guris

Two of Brazil's finest keyboardists, Jovino Santos Neto and André Mehmar, have joined forces to honor composer and multi-instrumentalist Hermeto Pascoal. Jovino is a three-time Latin Grammy nominee and amongst the most respected Brazilian musicians of the day. A respected educator, a valued sideman, and a master composer and arranger, he (as does Pascoal) considers his music beyond category, neither classical, jazz, nor Brazilian, rather "above it all." Andre Mehmar represents the best of the younger generation of Brazilian musicians, highly regarded in both popular and classical worlds. Both Santos Neto and Pascoal were heroes of his growing up. To celebrate Hermeto's 80th birthday, they selected ten mostly unrecorded gems from his vast archive, and the result is rich with creative abandon, joyful rhythm, and telepathic interplay.

Primrose Christine, 'Gràdh is Gonadh - Guth ag aithris' (Love and Loss - A Lone Voice)

'Gràdh is Gonadh - Guth ag aithris' (Love and Loss - A Lone Voice) is the powerful new album of pure and unaccompanied traditional Scottish Gaelic song by Christine Primrose, widely recognized and acknowledged as one of the great singers of her generation. Over three decades on from her groundbreaking debut, the cultural landscape and personal timing is right for this recording of clarity, poignancy and depth from a remarkable and mature voice. Laid bare and given space to breathe and speak, the emotion and feeling in this work make a connection that transcends language. This new release is an important milestone in the career of an important artist and singer, stripped back to basics and reflecting her earliest and deepest sense of what Gaelic song is and should be.

PROJEKT

In our January new release guide, burnside welcomed 33-year-old Portland-based records. Projekt is home to Steve Roach, Erik Wøllo, Black Tape For A Blue Girl and Voltaire. The label's two-genre approach covers both the electronic/ambient and goth/darkwave realms. Surviving throughout the decades where so many other labels perished, Projekt continues to bring new artists to the fore while nurturing the careers of the label's biggest acts. This month we are adding an additional 30 titles from the label's extensive back catalogue.

ELECTRONIC

Fang, Forrest, Letters To The Farthest Star

"(Limited Edition of 300) Letters To The Farthest Star is a deeply personal dispatch: a far-reaching sojourn into the diverse ambient/electronic influences that helped shape the last three decades of Fang's unique music. It is a moving and powerful testament to the exotic musical influences of his past and present. TEXTURA album of the month, April 2015. "Fang's 'Fourth World' music stands out from the ambient-electronic crowd in the way it extends the electronic side of his music into other spheres. Hints of classical minimalism can be detected as well as echoes of progressive, but it's the presence of traditional non-Western sounds such as elements of Javanese gamelan and Chinese folk music woven into his pieces that stand out." ### Fripp, Robert & Jeffrey Fayman, Temple In The Clouds

"A stunning album of looped Frippertronics and electronics, in the vein of the classic Frigg & Eno No Pussyfooting collaboration. Recorded live from a past life. Awash in the hypnotic looping structures of Robert Frigg's guitar soundscapes, Jeffrey Fayman adds an opulent cinematic brilliance to the proceedings, creating an intense and dramatic vision of a future rich in the heritage of Frigg's past. Nine years in the making, A Temple In The Clouds is a unique collaboration between one of rock's most important and influential guitarists and a contemporary cinematic composer. Frigg's contribution of two hours worth of treated guitar work (his trademark "Frippertronics") formed the basis for Fayman's layering of interwoven electronic soundscapes. Focusing on the subtleties and slight shifts in overtones and harmonics, Fayman & Frigg have created a dynamic musical kaleidoscope, ever changing and intrinsically radiant in each sonic fractal."

Mortii, Keiser av en dimensjon Ukjent (1995)

Mortii's earliest recordings, back in print! Mortii makes headlines world-wide with his current industrial-metal sound. Projekt returns to his roots with these digipak reissues redesigned under the guidance of Mortii. These are reissues of his 2nd and 3rd albums from 1994 and 1995. As a member of Emperor, Mortii was one of the notorious members of the fantastic and fanatic Norwegian Black-metal scene. Through a natural evolution, Mortii made his way into the dark-electronic scene. These long, thoughtful pieces present a regal yet ancient mood; as if the soundtrack for ancient castles filled with forlorn kings looking out upon their lost kingdoms. Words are spoken in Norwegian, drifting into the background ambience.

Obmana, Vidna, the River of Appearance (10th Anniversary 2-CD edition)

"This is a crowning achievement; in the heavenly, soaring, shimmering, meditative vein. This is a must-have release for all lovers of space and ambient music." – Bill Schroeder WEFT / Epiphanies Radio (10th Anniversary 2-CD edition) | Projekt re-releases vidna Obmana's classic the River of Appearance with a bonus disc, the entire album performed by Oregon's Dreams in Exile. River was a high point of Obmana's ambient/new age compositional style, presenting a minimal and serene flow utilizing sparse piano lines which intermingle with drifting keyboard loops and organic rainstick sounds. There is an overall harmonic unity on these eight pieces, stripping dense walls back to reveal a slowly changing sound configuration. The 2nd disc is not merely bonus tracks, but a complete re-creation of the original on traditional instruments. Re-experience the everlasting melancholy of the River of Appearance on this exceptional 10th anniversary 2-cd release. "

Roach, Steve, Immersion Two

"ELECTROAMBIENT SPACE: "The Immersion series exists in a line of distinguished long-form ambient works from Roach, and like those that have gone before it will completely envelop you in its subtle shifting sonic sensory stimulation. The end result is a soothing wall of soft sound that thoroughly relaxes and satisfies. Immersion indeed." The second in an ongoing series of atmospheric zones by master sound painter Steve Roach, Immersion:Two presents a subtle shift from the luminous steady state harmonic current of Immersion: One. On this 73-minute long-form soundscape, a sinuous weblike mist seems to emanate from the speakers. Mysterious yet calm, this is the perfect sound environment for the deeper hours after midnight or anytime a quiet, engulfing audio landscape is desired. If Nag Champa or Sandalwood incense has a sound this might be it. "

Roach, Steve & Dirk Serries, Low Volume Music

"After a ten year hiatus, Steve Roach and Dirk Serries (formerly recording as vidnaObmana) reconnect to begin anew. The result is an introspective musical palette solely dedicated to harmony, integrity and pure beauty. With Low Volume Music, Roach and Serries reconnect to create a beautiful release, displaying a vision sublimely refined, minimal, and true. This is perhaps their most personal collaboration to date. ALL MUSIC: "Seeing them come together once more after nearly a decade apart is one of those steps that's both familiar and promising. The sometimes gentle and always compelling nature of their work is remarkable. The emphasis on something contemplative and quietly there lends itself perfectly to the kind of ambient approach originally formalized by figures such as Brian Eno, something not to necessarily concentrate on in full while still enjoying its process." Black Tape For A Blue Girl, As one aflame laid bare by desire

"Whether this 1999 album is "gothic," "ethereal," or "ambient" is in the eyes of the beholder. The truth is that BlackTape creates incredibly passionate music incorporating all these genres, yet transcending them with striking musical poignancy and lyrical insight. MAGNET MAGAZINE: "'A lot of As One Aflame is damn near brilliant in its artistic reach and dramatic scope. At times, Black Tape echoes the romantic indulgence of This Mortal Coil, with haunting female vocals and ornate neoclassicism juxtaposed against an ominous, frozen landscape of strings and keyboards; Rosenthal's art achieves both an eerie sonic calm and an intense degree of emotional extravagance'"

Loveliescrushing, Xuvetyn

"INK19: "Xuvetyn is glorious from start to finish, very much in a loveless-era My Bloody Valentine- gone-ethereal vein. Genius. This is some of the most amazing music ever to come off four tracks. Loveliescrushing's music is soaked in shimmering, fuzzy, noisy brilliance. Beautiful female vocals waft through the hazy, swirling fog of layered feedback-drenched, processed guitars. This is ethereal lo-fi at its finest" Veils of gorgeous guitar wash and angelic gossamery voice. Beautiful and grandiose orchestral subtlety and childlike naiveté, billowy, fur-lined, milky softness to a blasting metallic roar. 75 minutes of spacey drumless iridescent textures and atmospheric soundscapes. Guitar and voices sculpted, manipulated and processed into beautiful noise. Another gem of lo-fi brilliance from Loveliescrushing. "

Various Artists, Projekt: Gothic

"SUBLEVEL203.com: "If one were to attempt to take the entire essence of Projekt's artists and try to condense it into one simple disc, you would have Projekt: Gothic a brilliantly constructed CD showcasing the prime artists on this darkwave and ethereal label. MUSICTAP: "13 tracks of impressive choices by the most influential bands and their most defining moments. Every song is as enchanting and as charismatic as each contributing band is unique. From the gothic comedy of Voltaire to the bleak despondency of Lycia; from the poetic melancholy of Black Tape for a Blue Girl to the ethereal beauty of Mira, there's something for everyone here. The continuum of music is well explored here. With this disc, Projekt have provided the listener with a perfect sampling" Originally sequenced by Projekt's Sam Rosenthal for the Hot Topic chain, for the holiday season. "

Q LAZZARUS | GOODBYE HORSES

Q LAZZARUS

GOODBYE HORSES

This is a repressing of the classic early 80s single, "Goodbye Horses" from Q Lazzarus, perhaps best known for its inclusion in the Silence of the Lambs and Married to the Mob soundtracks. The much sought after track is hard to find on vinyl, and the original pressing on Mon Amie (1500 copies) sold out very quickly. This pressing includes the original single edit as well as never-before-heard original demos from a time when Q Lazzarus was still a cab driver in NYC. Q's whereabouts are currently unknown, but her beguiling legacy remains of great interest, especially to synth pop fans the world over. The artwork features stills from her long lost original music video for "Goodbye Horses" which will be released in time for the street date.

Portland Oregon's Paradise presents "Dawn of Paradise", a double-vinyl LP which recalls the heyday of The Who's "Tommy," Pink Floyd's "The Wall" and Yes' "Tales of Topographic Oceans," produced and engineered by the legendary Ron Nevison, who manned the boards on both "Quadrophenia" and "Physical Graffiti."
